March 2005, Adar I/Adar II 5765

From the Rabbi's Desk

My dear fellow Valley Jews and Friends,
SHALOM!

There is a promise of spring in the air. I have even seen a few flowers peeping up, and we have had some lovely days (now, if we can just get through the last bits of ice and snow....)!

THE CALENDAR & HOLIDAYS

We are heading towards the end of the month of Adar I. Rosh Chodesh (the new Month beginning) for Adar II will fall on March 11th and 12th.

In March we also have two of the seven specially named Shabbatot (Sabbaths); Shabbat Shekalim (Sabbath of the Shekels - weights or coins) on which we read about the collection of the shekels for upkeep of the Temple; and Shabbat Zachor (Sabbath of Remembrance), on which we read about Amalek being recalled in order to wipe out its memory – preparation for Purim!).

The biggest item on the calendar in this month is PURIM, which is from sunset on the evening of the 24th to sundown on the 25th of March, which is the 14th of Adar II (Adar 14 in non-leap years). We will mark Purim in our Shabbat service at THOI on the 25th, and are scheduled to do so again on the 27th in the Religious School.

Purim is our version of carnival! Everything is done topsy-turvy: we poke fun at anything and anyone, we dress up in costumes, we do things in exaggerated and odd ways, and we have fun! Some people have the custom of drinking until they cannot tell the difference between Mordechai (Yeah!) and Haman (Booo!), but this is not universally accepted [it tends to be more of a college fraternity/Hillel practice ;-)]. Some people gamble or play games of chance as a way of recalling the use of lots or dice by Haman (Booo!) to select the date on which to kill the Jews. We also eat Hamantaschen, the three cornered filled cookies, as reminders of Haman's (Booo!) fancy hat. In Israel these are called Oznei Haman, Haman's ears! Take that, elephant ears!

The major mitzvah (commandment) for Purim is to hear the Megillah (as is said, der ganze megillah – the WHOLE megillah!). It has become the custom to drown out the name of Haman (Booo!) during the reading, which is why shouting, groggers (ratcheted noisemakers), stamping, horns, and the like are heard throughout during the story. It also helps the younger listeners pay attention all the way through!

The second mitzvah of Purim is to give Shalach Manot (the sending of portions). Usually, this is a basket of goodies sent to friends and family containing at least three kinds of foods (cookies – Hamantaschen most often, fruit, candy, and nuts are very common) and a greeting. The real mitzvah, to my mind, however, is the Shalach Manot we send to those who are in need as a form of Tzedakah (righteous action) and Gemilut Chasidim (deeds of loving kindness). This is a far more substantial collection, such as a large basket or a grocery bag, usually filled with staples and non-perishable foods that can be used for several meals, and sometimes even containing money. There are organizations that will collect money to prepare and distribute these baskets, but you can make them yourself and deliver them, or just give food or money to First Step or the Food Bank. The Shalach Manot are sent both to friends and to those in need so no one needs to feel embarrassed by receiving something as Tzedakah – we hope that everyone gets something!

I strongly urge you to take this mitzvah seriously and make a particular effort to give at this time of year. All the major donations that were received at winter holiday time are long gone, and the need is still very much there. Purim is a way for us to use the holiday spirit to help bridge the gap for those who have too little.

Directly related to Purim on the 24th of March is Ta'anit Ester (the Fast of Esther). On this day it is traditional to fast in remembrance of the three day fast that Esther took on in preparation for approaching King Achashveros. The fast is sunup to sundown. And just remember: you can break your fast with Hamantaschen! ;-) Yummmm!

The day after Purim is also a holiday (Bet you didn't know that!) called Shushan Purim. Because Shushan was a walled city, the messengers from the king were not admitted until the next morning because they arrived late in the evening after the gates were closed (for security). For that reason, the news did not get to Shushan for another whole day. We celebrate the delayed arrival by allowing that any walled city can have a second day celebration, thereby extending Purim an extra day!

Plan ahead: decide what you will dress up as this year. Queen Esther? Mordechai? Haman (Booo!)? The King? Vashti? Darth Vader? Groucho and Harpo? The cast of characters is as wide open as your imagination! I look forward to seeing you in your costume.

B'virvat shalom (with Blessings of Peace),
Rabbi Joe Blair

Noteworthy Congregational News

- Mazel Tov to the whole congregation!!
Rabbi Joe Blair has signed a three-year contract, extending his services to both Temple House of Israel and Beth El for another 3 years. Purely as an editorial comment, that's wonderful news! Our Jewish community

Noteworthy Congregational
News

is thriving with Rabbi Joe's leadership.

- Mark your calendars: Our community Passover Seder will be held Saturday, April 23rd at 6:00 pm. Doug Degen has volunteered to chair this event – but he needs a co-chair. If you are interested in helping Doug, please call him direct at 886-8651. More details and a reservation form will follow in the April bulletin.
- Elana Brody will perform a 45-minute program of her original music– both piano and voice –on Saturday evening March 12th, beginning at 7:30 PM in the Temple Sanctuary. Elana has been composing musical poetry to sing with her piano since she was 13 years old. Her sound might be considered pop-folk, with sounds of the 60's and 70's Joni Mitchell, Carole King and Laura Nyro. A surprise guest will be the opening act. Come and enjoy! The admission of $7 for adults and $3 for students will go directly to benefit the temple.
- A corrected, updated and revised Temple Members and Friends list is included with this newsletter. Please let us know of any corrections at templenews@ntelos.net. Subsequent changes will be noted in the bulletin.
- The next Temple board meeting is on March 24th at 7:00 in the temple social hall. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Special Event

Get ready for an evening of quiet music, tasty hors d'oeuvres, a silent auction and wine tasting at Congregational Beth Israel's O'Mansky Hall, 301 East Jefferson Street, Charlottesville. The event will be held on Saturday, March 19th at 7:30 pm. A number of fine wines, all kosher for Passover, will be presented by the Market Street Wineshop. Order forms will be available to order wine for Passover. Some fabulous items have been donated for the silent auction, including two nights at a luxury inn in Lexington, two tickets to the Paramount Theater, a facial and massage at City Spa, and many more. Be sure not to miss it! Tickets are $18 per person and will be available at the door. All proceeds benefit CBI Preschool. Additional donations are welcome. For more information, call (434) 295-6382.

News of our Community

- Our condolences to Lesley and David Novack on the death of both of Lesley's parents at the end of January.
- Rabbi Jonathan Biatch, with his wife Bonnie Margulis and children Samantha and Joshua, has accepted a pulpit in Madison, Wisconsin. We wish them the very best!

Film Series

Come view "Rosenstrasse" on March 6th at 7:00 in the social hall. The story tells of how a handful of unorganized Aryan women in 1943 held a spontaneous weeklong vigil outside the Jewish Community Center in the heart of Berlin where their Jewish husbands were being detained by the Nazis. The demonstration eventually coerced the Nazis to release the men. "A very good film" reviewed by Shirley and Rafael Brand.

News from the Women's Group

- We wish the following members and friends a HAPPY BIRTHDAY in March:
 Laura Jean Brand on March 19th
 Laurie Berman on March 28th
 And HAPPY ANNIVERSARY to:

No "membership" is necessary – just an interest in keeping our community connected. Please come join us! We'll be talking about the bake sale and Passover duties as well as the last bits of the social hall renovations.
Adult Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The next monthly Torah study at Beth El will take place on March 18th at 6 pm. Once again, bring your own dinner, eat and join in as we discuss the Torah portion. This event is also planned for April 15th, and May 9th. • A weekly Torah study meets on Thursdays (except the first Thursday of the month) at noon at THOI. All congregants are welcome to drop in and take part. • The Jewish Lecture Series continues on Sunday evenings from 7 to 8:30 pm, usually on the third Sunday of the month. Come to any or all, and if you have suggestions for topics, please feel free to tell the Rabbi. March 20th @ Beth El - Jewish Lifecycle: Liturgy and Practice April 17th @ THOI - Passover: Ritual and Rules • The Adult B'nai Mitzvah class has shifted into a more individual mode for those who are participating. If you are interested in pursuing this goal, please speak to the Rabbi. The lead-time to accomplish this milestone is anywhere from a minimum of a year upwards, depending on your free time, flexibility and knowledge base. It is a very significant undertaking, and certainly worthy of celebrating and acknowledging when it is reached!
Youth Group SHORTY	Shorty, our Youth Group, is a separate program from the Confirmation Class, but most of those involved are in both programs. More information on the Youth Group will come from Sherri Alt, their advisor, but I want to let you know that we have three members who attended the NATIONAL NFTY Convention in Los Angeles, thanks to all of you who donated towards this major milestone. Even better, we have at least four of our members attending THEVENT, a NFTY Kallah in Falls Church in early March! Kol hakavod (all honor) to Sherri and the members of our Youth group for their ruach (Spirit)! Please note the change of meeting times: Our next meeting is February 27th at BE and the one following that is March 13th at BE
Confirmation Class	The culmination that I envision of this several year-long program of continuing Jewish education is Confirmation – a celebration of the full Adult status and ongoing Jewish learning of the participants at the end of their High School careers, as they prepare to go off as adults. This year we anticipate celebrating this milestone for Gabie Kalman and Eli Giovanetti at the Shavuot Shabbat service on June 10rd at Beth El. We will also be welcoming the incoming class of Confirmation students (those having their B'nai Mitzvah this year) at our YOUTH Service, led by them and all the current Confirmation class members on June 3rd at THOI, perhaps to be followed by a Cosmic bowling and Shul-in (stay tuned for more details)! I encourage you to hold those dates and attend both of these wonderful events. I know that you will join me in kvelling (filling with pride and joy).

Judaica Shop	Thanks for supporting the Judaica shop! If you have any suggestions for inventory please call Dianne Mason at 885-6254.
Staunton Book Group	Our March selection is a book that has fired Leah's imagination. We'll read The Slave by Isaac Bashevis Singer. The sharing of books that affect us, many by Jewish writers, is a wonderful experience. Two or more gathered together, entertaining different opinions, opening horizons – aren't books amazing? Please join us with your insights on Wednesday, March 23rd at 7:30 . We'll meet at Dianne Mason's home, 1805 Orange Street in Staunton. Call Dianne at 885-6254 for directions.
